About Pio Quante

Pio Quante is a robust and dynamic international commodity brokerage franchise group, which specializes in the speculation of precious and semi-precious metals and minerals. In addition, Pio Quante negotiates and facilitates, on behalf of its clients, commodity buying and selling transactions, specialist industry specific advisory services, transaction financing, international transportation of high value commodities and security services.

Pio Quante's most competitive edge is however its long standing professional and business relationship with both suppliers and purchasers of its commodities. Pio Quante mainly purchases its commodities from mining companies on the African continent and sells it directly to end users or markets in Asia, Canada, Europe and North America. We also serve as the broker for various mining companies and relevant industry operations.

The specific products of Pio Quante's clients include commodities such as crude oil, platinum, gold, diamonds, cobalt, copper, iron ore and a various selection of semi-precious minerals. Our product selection focuses on providing our purchasing clients with products that meet their exact specifications, and at the most competitive prices. To our clients, our comprehensive business relations and international associations means the assurance that our products comply with all international laws and requirements, are correct, certified and are made available at the most competitive prices.

What are our corporate services?

Pio Quante's robust corporate strategy and its philosophy of providing superior client services have led to the creation of its comprehensive and dynamic portfolio of corporate services, which include:

Speculation transactions

Pio Quante purchases, subject to its stringent acquisition criteria, virtually any good quality precious or semi-precious metals or minerals for its own inventory. When required, Pio Quante negotiates and facilitates meaningful transactions on behalf of mining houses and commodity speculators that wish to sell their commodities to end users or markets in Asia, Canada, Europe and North America.

Other Services

When required, Pio Quante negotiates and facilitates, on behalf of its clients:

- The structuring of commodity transactions that include aspects and matters of taxation, regulatory compliance, transaction financing, legal, insurance, international transportation of high value commodities and security services.
- Commodity valuation services that are performed by independent, well respected and international accredited specialists.
- Venture capital funding for the acquisition of commodities. However, the minimum applicable financing amount should exceed $1-million.
- A comprehensive strategic and financial investigation into a potential commodity transaction.
- Reviews of the commodity industry, competitive positioning and business location strategy as well as identifying and screening new clients, partners or transaction(s).
- Merger and acquisition transactions between small to medium mining operations and/or marketing divisions.
